Recovery Advocacy Day to be observed

(Harrisburg, PA) – Members of Pennsylvania’s recovering community will gather at the State Capitol on September 20, 2016 for Recovery Advocacy Day. Throughout the day, this group will meet with legislators, share their story and convey a message of hope. At 2 p.m. these advocates will take part in a media event in the main rotunda. This event will feature a resolution from Representative Thomas Murt, remarks from Lieutenant Governor Michael Stack and Representative Gene DiGirolamo along with a message from several recovery advocates.

- WHAT: Recovery Advocacy Day
- WHO: Lieutenant Governor Michael Stack
Representative Thomas Murt
Representative Gene DiGirolamo
Members of Pennsylvania’s Recovering Community
- WHERE: Main Rotunda, Pennsylvania State Capitol
- WHEN: September 20, 2016 at 2 p.m.

Recovery Advocacy Day aims to raise awareness of substance use disorders, celebrates individuals in long-term recovery, and acknowledges the work of prevention, treatment, and recovery support services.
