Fifth Annual Recovery Advocacy Day to be observed

(Harrisburg, PA) – The Pennsylvania Association of County Drug and Alcohol Administrators invites you to join advocates, government officials and members of Pennsylvania’s recovery community for the Fifth Annual Recovery Advocacy Day Media Event on Tuesday, September 24, at 2 p.m., in the Main Capitol Rotunda, in downtown Harrisburg. Participants will share awareness of substance use conditions, celebrate individuals in recovery, and acknowledge the work of prevention, treatment and recovery support services.

Scheduled speakers include Pennsylvania Recovery Organization Alliance Executive Director Bill Stauffer; recovery advocates John Fabieski and Samantha Osterlof; Department of Drug and Alcohol Programs Secretary Jennifer Smith; and several members of the General Assembly.

Participants also will spend the day visiting with members of the General Assembly to share the positive impact recovery has had on their life and the lives of others. Moreover, they will spread a message of hope that people can and do recover from substance use disorders.
